New Board Chair Appointed

We are pleased to announce that Catharine Read is the new Chair of the Passenger Transportation Board. Honourable Claire Trevena, Minister of Transportation & Infrastructure, issued a statement on October 2, 2017 with respect to Ms. Read's appointment. Minister Trevena also thanked Don Zurowski, past Chair, for his years of service.

"I am very excited to lead the Passenger Transportation Board." said Ms. Read. "I look forward to continuing its practice of administratively fair, principled and transparent decision making; advancing its policy and program work; and consulting with industry to learn about its opportunities and challenges.

Previously, Catharine Read was the Head of the Yukon Public Service and Chair / Vice Chair of the Yukon Deputy Ministers Council. She has also held senior positions with the government of British Columbia, been the Principal of her own consulting firm and was the Chief Economist for the Government of the Cayman Islands.

Active in her community, Catharine Read served in various board director roles including Katimavik Youth Services, Cayman Islands Stock Exchange Authority and Tourism British Columbia. Ms. Read has a Bachelor of Arts Degree (Honours Economics) from the University of Alberta and a Master of Arts (Economics) from Queens University.

The six members of the Passenger Transportation Board, including the Chair, serve on a part-time basis. For more information about Board members, click here.
