PT Board Member Changes

Don Zurowski, Chair of the Passenger Transportation Board, welcomes Spencer Mikituk to the Board and thanks Tracy Gray for her service to the Board.

Spencer Mikituk has been appointed to the Board for a two-year term as of March 29, 2012. He has over twenty-five years of management experience in the Canadian aerospace industry. He is currently the President of Mikituk Consulting Incorporated located in Delta, BC. Previously, Mr. Mikituk was the Associate Dean of Aerospace Programs and Manager of Quality Assurance and Industry Services at the British Columbia Institute of Technology Aerospace and Technology Campus. In addition, he was the Manager of Technical Training Operations for Air Canada (formerly Canadian Airlines International). Mr. Mikituk is the past Chair of the Aerospace Training Advisory Committee with BCIT. He holds a Diploma in Aircraft Maintenance from the British Columbia Institute of Technology.

Tracy Gray was appointed to the Board in April 2010. She will retire from the Board on April 30, 2012. Tracy is the proprietor of Discover Wines which is the top 100% VQA BC wine store in the province. She is also a Director of Prospera Credit Union. Tracy is active in the community of Kelowna. Tracy has won many business accolades and was selected one of the 100 New Women Pioneers in BC in 2008. Tracy was instrumental in the Board's move to paperless meetings and electronic transmission of files. Tracy has been a valuable member and we wish her all the best in future endeavours.
