Amend or change a ride-hailing (TNS) licence

Ride-hailing (TNS) companies must apply to the Passenger Transportation Board (Board) to amend or change their terms and conditions of licence. They cannot apply to amend terms and conditions labelled “legislative requirements”.

Make sure you understand the application process for ride-hailing companies. Learn how the Board makes a decision using the information and evidence you submit in your application package.

Changing regions

To operate in other regions, you must apply to amend your licence. You cannot operate in Passenger Transportation Regions you are not approved to operate in.
